

HaverLore Trivia Questionnaire

Please visit the stations indicated to find the answers to the following questions. Correctly answered questionnaires will be entered into the drawing for the reproduction of the Haverford centennial map. Print your name and contact information at the bottom of the page and give it to Bob Kieft as you leave the building.

- 1) In 1934, this highly published Haverford graduate founded the Baker Street Irregulars, an organization of Sherlock Holmes enthusiasts. What is his name? (Station #1 Circulation and Reserves)

Christopher Morley

- 2) In 1843, habitual rule breaker and poor student F. C. Yarnall was given demerits for being disrespectful and disorderly, for being out of bounds, for whistling, and for what other forbidden activity? (Station #2 Browsing Area)

Novel Reading

- 3) The Haverford president's house was transformed into a fraternity house for a scene from which 1983 Hollywood film? (Station #2 Browsing Area)

Eddie and the Cruisers

- 4) Prior to Haverford accepting female exchanges and transfers in the 1970s and going co-ed in 1980, name a group of women students who graduated from the college in earlier years? (Station #3 Reference Desk).

Graduate students, Relief and Reconstruction units, or the Social and Technical Assistance Program

- 5) What is a Rhinie? (Station #4 Book Stacks Tour)

A freshman

- 6) Where did Haverford student David Bispham go to rehearse in 1876, long before he became an international opera star? (Station #5 Music Library)

Train station

- 7) What did Levi T. Edwards (Class of 1881) discover on the morning of June 16th, 1881? (Station #6 Science Library)

A comet

- 8) When was compulsory attendance at Quaker Meeting for Worship abandoned at Haverford? (Station #10 Quaker and Special Collections)

1965

- 9) What 1960s era project brought Ardmore African-American community members and Haverford students together to promote local education and civic unity? (Station #14 Philips Wing)

Serendipity day camp

- 10) Who scored the first "century" (100 runs) for Haverford? (Station #15 Cricket Library)

Frank Taylor

Name: _____ Phone or email: _____